

What Changed?

- California Senate Bill 263

- Requires real estate licensees to complete a 2-hour Implicit Bias Course, AND
- Requires that the 3-hour Fair Housing Course have an interactive component
- Effective January 1, 2023

- Department of Real Estate Requirements

- The DRE approves Real Estate Continuing Education Courses in California
- The Implicit Bias Course and interactive Fair Housing Course are now required of education providers.
- See: <https://www.dre.ca.gov/Licensees/CERequirements.html>

What does this mean for my members?

---

Licensees with a renewal date of 1/1/23 or later

- Must submit CE coursework that includes the interactive Fair Housing and Implicit Bias coursework.
- If the licensee has completed their 45 hours already with the former package and old coursework, they will be required to take these two courses also.

Licensees with a renewal date prior to 1/1/23

- May submit the new coursework in Implicit Bias and the Interactive Fair Housing for credit and it will be accepted even though these courses are not required prior to 1/1/23
OR
- May submit the previous coursework PRIOR to 1/1/23 even though it does not include the two new courses. Certificates MUST BE RECEIVED by DRE prior to 1/1/23.

Licensees with a renewal date prior to 1/1/23 that submit renewal information after 1/1/23 – LATE RENEWALS

- These agents will be required to submit the new coursework in Implicit Bias and the Interactive Fair Housing Course.
